SPORADIC RACE OUTBREAKS IN THE MIDDLE-WEST

CHICAGO, June 18.—Sporadic racial outbreaks occurred here today as the result of week-end shootings in the "black belt," where two negroes were killed by a policeman and a vice investigator.

Morris Cohn, a white man, was stabbed in the back by a negro in a restaurant. The negro fled. T. C. Lambrecht, white and Lee Anderson, negro, both employes of the Illinois Athletic club, engaged in a fight over the "black belt" situation. Lambrecht was badly beaten and Anderson arrested.

The "black belt" trouble was ascribed by police to the vice crusade against resorts and gambling houses in the negro section.

Nearly a hundred extra policemen were sent to the district by Chief of Police Collins today.

Mrs. E. L. Howard and daughter Elizabeth, who have been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Corley, has returned to her home in Fort Worth accompanied by Mrs. John R. Corley. Mrs. Corley will spend a few days in Fort Worth and then will visit her brother in Marshall.

Bryan Breaks Ankle And Will Be Out Probably Rest Of The Season; Rangers Win Sunday

The Austin Rangers won a hard fought game at Nowlin Park Sunday by defeating the Gushers 5 to 3 in a thirteen inning contest. Brooks big right hander, worked fine after the frist innng in which the Gushers scored their only three runs. Carl Hill worked for the Gushers and he deserved to win and he would have had it not been for a little bum head work in the eleventh when Geppert hit one thru Brooks and it went thru McElwee, Geppert went on around, pausing a moment at 3rd and then he was thrown out at the plate, Clements to Autrey.

There was one moment in the game that will cause much lament to Gusher fans for the remainer of the season and which will please the other clubs in a way, and yet they will be sorry to hear of it. Claude Bryan, center fielder extraordinary, when attempting to steal second slid into the bag in such a manner that he broke both bones in his ankle. This touches the best fielding and the best fitting outfield in the Association. Tiner, pitcher for the Gushers played center field during the remained of the game. Bryan was treated by Dr. Brown, club physician, who asserted that Bryan would be out of the game for the remainder of the season more than likely.

Bryan got an infield hit to Clements, Butler scoring. Bryan out stealing Autrey to Clements. Bryan broke both bones in his ankle when sliding to second. Three runs, three hits, no errors.

It was thought that he was dead when picked up, but in order to be sure that every effort might be put forth to save him, he was rushed to the sanitarium where he was pronounced dead. It is understood that the deceased came to Mexia only recently but he had many friends here. He came here from Needham. His father asked the Sill Undertaking Company to ship his body to him in South Texas, near Houston which was done Sunday night.

Circulation Campaign Of The Mexia Daily News Gets Under Way With A Universal Expression Of Approval

Although the power plant has been shut down half of the day, making it very difficult for The Mexia Daily News to be issued at all today, in any form, there seems to be a constant strengthening of power in the circulation campaign being waged throughout this section of Texas by The News

Numbers of letters have been received by the management congratulating the News for its efforts in building a bigger and better city and community.

J. K. Hughes, one of the loyal supporters and friends of The News was the first citizen to take advantage of the greatest bargain offer that has ever been offered by a daily newspaper when he sent in his personal check for twelve new subscribers under the club rate plan.

John I. McElroy of the Higdon-McElroy company also sent a nice letter of encouragement and is planning further co-operation in some plan that he has formed in connection with his 99 cent days.

Jesse MceLndon telephoned the manager, W. K. Boyd, who is personally conducting the circulation building campaign, stating that he had quite a few griends whom he hoped to take advantage of the liberal rate for, and to reserve him a number of subscriptions out of the first 2,000.

Subscriptions are coming in on every route out of Mexia and from patrons of routes out of neighboring towns, building up a wholesome list of readers from this section of Texas.

Thousands of extra copies are being sent out and each mail is expected to bring in a larger quota of new subscribers until the close of the campaign the fifteenth of July.

The Salesmanship club, through its officers, has sent word that it is glad to line up with the press and do anything in its power to make this drive a success.

A letter from Mildred, the new oil town on the T. & B. V., expresses the opinion of the writer that The Mexia Daily News has authentic data on the oil situation there, and its superiority in this immediate field is recognized generally.

The Texas manager of the United Press recently stated that The Mexia Daily News publishes more live world news than any small city paper in Texas.

"Father" may be followed daily. Each issue means a smile, as this greatest comic feature known to the newpaper world is daily in these columns.

The athletic section has its appeal.

Efforts are being made to offer a farm page of interest to the growing number of readers on rural routes and conncetions are being made with correspondents in the country communities.

The County Court House news interests everyone.

The big Sunday paper itself is worth the price asked for the daily under the present plan and efforts are constantly being made to improve the service given and raise the standard until none will dispute its present position as the leading daily newspaper of East Central Texas.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH POISON PLOT TRIED TODAY

NEWARK, N. J. June 18.—Facing charges which represent her as a modern Lucretia Borgia, Mrs. Mary F. Creighton, went on trial here today for the alleged murder of her borther by slow poison.

A pale nervously smiling woman, Mrs. Creighton looked anything but the cold blooded murderess which the State claims her to be.

She is accused of having fed arsenic to Charles Raymond Avery, 18, killing him by inches, to obtain his life insurance. Her husband, John, a mild-mannered man with a dazed air, is charged with the same offense. The prosecution proposes to show that he came under the influence of his wife and was forced to participate in the alleged poison plot. In addition to young Avery, Mrs. Creighton is suspected of having poisoned her mother-in-law, Mrs. Walter J. Creighton. She is under indictment for this. The elder Mrs. Creighton's body was exhumed, and traces of poison found in it, according to the State's experts.

As Mrs. Creighton was summoned to court, nurses at the house of detention were caring for her month-old baby, born since her arrest. Friends are looking after her other child, a daughter.

LIONS TO ROAR WHEN FACE TO FACE WITH SALESMEN

By HECK

The Lions will roar again June 26 and the Salesmanship Club will try to peddle the wild beast their wares when the two ball nines meet in deadly combat at Nowlin park in a game for the benefit of the playground fund. I am giving you fans a tip right now that the coming fracas between the Lions and Salesmanship gang will not be such a one sided affair as the Lion-Rotary game was a spell back—I hated to say that, Eubanks, but it must be did)—and my tip is that this is going to be a regular He-mans ball game and with such hitters as Dock Brown, Tom Phillips, Gene Sinclair, and in fact the whole gob of Lions that shook the universe with their hitting power in the Lion-Rotatin game. Dick Wagner, who seems to be the high mucky muck of the Salesmanship gang, is all het up over the wonderful ball nine he has collected from the wilds of the Trinity bottoms or somewhere and being the general pooh bah of the gang he naturally is about 9-10 swelled up over his gang, but my hunch is that his ball nine is not going to be so darn good as he thinks it is and them Lions will be there with bells on. However, I just want to whisper a word in your ears about both them nines. "None of them have even acknowledged my challenge for a game against my Elks Club nine and just between you and me I think there is an amber streak somewhere along their spines about tangling up with my Elks' nine." But I'll let that matter rest a while and keep hammering away at you to be out there the 26 and see the Lions chew up the Salesmanship bunch. Sure, it may go the other way so I am to tell you to be out the 26 and see for yourself and I know that it will be worth the money either way it goes.

U. S. Labor Board Publicly Rebukes Pennsylvania R.y.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The Pennsylvania Railroad was today publicly reprimanded by the United States Railroad Labor Board for "refusal to permit a certain class of employes to select their own reprcsentatives to negotiate agreements covering wages and working conditions."

The road was rebuked by the board as placing itself in the same position as employes who strike against the board's decisions and the law creating the board.

The Pennsylvania was declared to have "denied to its shopmen the privilege of laboring men to which Congress had declared the men entitled."

The official rebuke, the only penalty the rail board is empowered to inflict, climaxed the attempt of the Pennsylvania to negotiate with its men direct through "company unions." The trainmen's brotherhoods were the only exception to this scheme and the fight has been before the board and in courts at various times in two years.

The railroads ignored an order of the board to hold an election among its shopcrafts so that the men might select representatives to act in wage and other disputes. The board cited the road for contempt. The Pennsylvania took an injunction case to restrain the board from administering the rebuke to the United States Supreme Court which held in favor of the board.

Recently Samuel Rea, president of the road, was peremptorily hailed before the board by Ben W. Hooper, chairman in a similar controversy involving the clerks brotherhood.

The brotherhood charged that the road was arbitrarily forcing employes to negotiate through company unions when they wished the unions to represent them. Rea again defied the board and declared the men voted to negotiate through the company unions.

He challenged the right of the board to interfere.

Today's rebuke branded the road's course as "indefensible from every viewpoint."

To Put Flivvers In the Pound Pen

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 18.—A pounding system for automobiles found in violation of traffic ordinances will soon be inaugurated here, it has been annuoced by Fire and Police Commissioner Claude Wright.

Under the pounding system automobiles found too near a fire plug, improperly parked or in violation of any traffic ordinances will be hauled to the city pound, where they will be held until the owner calls and pays a $2.00 pound fee.

The pounding system will be a great time saver and will also eliminate the possibility of the violator escaping as is sometimes the case under the present ticket system. It was explained by Wright. When the owner calls for his car he can be served personally with a court summons. If he fails to answer the summons, he can be cited for contempt of court.

State Seeks 48 Acres Adjacent To Powell Field

AUSTIN, June 18.—Suit on behalf of the State against the Sun company, J. K. Hughes Oil company and others for the recovery of certain valuable oil lands in Navarro county was filed here Saturday by the attorney general. The suit was filed for recovery of 48 acres of land situated in the Powell field and in close proximity to the famous Hughes-McKie well of the J. K. Hughes Oil company. Damages amounting to $100,000 also are asked by the State.

Allegations in the State's petition state that on June 1, 1923, the commissioner of the general land office issued J. E. Anderson of Austin a permit to prospect for oil and gas on this land. The suit is designed to protect Anderson and his right to prospect. The petition further asks that the defendants companies be restrained from further interfering with Anderson.

Michigan Flyers Land In Santone

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 18—Under the command of Major Carl Spatz, the seven Fokker monoplanes which left Selfridge Field, Mount Clemens, Mich., early Friday morning, arrived at their destination, Kelly Field, San Antonio, at 6 o'clock yesterday.

The flight of the Fokkers, of which there are only nine in the army air service, the other two being retained at Selfridge Field, was without incident, with the exception of one fog encountered shortly after leaving Mount Clemens, according to Major Spatz.

Stops were made enroute at Rantoul, Ill., St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Kas.; Fort Sill, Ok.; and Dallas, Texas.

The monoplanes are all new, having been made in Holland and received in this country last January. They had been only about 100 hours flying before leaving for Kelly Field They are of similar, though much smaller type than the T-2, recently flown in a transcontinental flight by Lieutenantse Kelly and Macready.

Mistook Insects for Smoke; Gave In A Fire Alarm

WACO, Texas, June 18.—A swarm of insects pouring from the tower of the idministration building at Baylor University here at sunset one evening caused a general alarm to be turned in to the fire department.

The swirling mass of insects coming from the tower gave the appearance of smoke and an over cautious pedestrian turned in the alarm.

Traffic jams resulting from the movement of the fire apparatus lasted for several hours and Chief Meers who was caught in a jam was forced to abandon his car and make the call on foot.

John C. Yeldell returned Monday at noon from Dallas, where he has been in a sanitarium.

Indian Wife Of Croker Wins Her Suit In Ireland

By GEORGE MACDONAGH

DUBLIN, June 18.—"Bula don't give up the ship."

Such were the last words of 'Boss' Richard Croker, his Indian bride, who won a complete victory in the courts here when the late Tammany polticians children were denied their sunit to break Croker's will, she declared in an exclusive interview with the United Press.

The boss, Bula said, was encouraging her to fight all law suits designed to deprive her of his entire estate, which his last will left to her.

Mrs. Croker was tremendously pleased by her court victory.

"It was a real Irish victory" the former American Indian girl declared. She pointed out that an Irish flag was flying over Glencairn, the home Croker left here, in celebration of the court triumph over Richard Croker Jr., and other children of the "boss" by his first wife, who tried repeatedly and unsuccessfully to discredit Bula and beak the will.

"I feel I have been fully vindicated," Bula said. "The couts of Ireland have done me justice.

"I would like to add that my one regret throughout the proceedings was that my dead husband was not by my side in the hour of victory.

"I might say that I carried on the fight in accordance with his last words and wishes.

"His last words to me were: 'Bula, don't give up the ship. Please see all these lawsuits out in open court.'"

Two months before Croker died, Bula said, she asked him to the presence of witnesses if he would like to see anyone, in particular, mentioning the names of his children. He replied that he would not, she declared.

"Thank the people of America and Ireland for their good wishes." she said.

C. M. Church, foreman of the Daily News mechanical department, is visiting his family in Fort Worth today.

Orphans of Commerce

ON nearly every merchant's shelves are a few unknown left-overs. They have been there a long time. No one remembers just how long. Dingy, faded and soiled, they seem to be edging away from their more brightly dressed neighbors to a place of seclusion. There is a story behind these shabby little strangers.

A story of how once they were proud and new, dressed in clothes as gaudy and bright as the latest vial of perfume from Paris.

They were sold to the merchant by a salesman who knew their merits. For a time the merchant remembered their merits and told his customers. But little by little these merits were forgotten. The merchant, with his many items, slowly forgot even their names. New clerks never heard of them.

When some of their more fortunate shelf mates were advertised, merchants began to display these lines more prominently and uncalled for and unsold the unknown. It takes little effort and little time to sell goods which everyone knows about.

The shabby little orphans are gradually disappearing. They are being given away or thrown away to make room. Tomorrow they shoppers selected the goods they became acquainted with through printers' ink, leaving will be gone.

Bryan Breaks Ankle And Will Be Out Probably Rest Of The Season; Rangers Win Sunday

The Austin Rangers won a hard fought game at Nowlin Park Sunday by defeating the Gushers 5 to 3 in a thirteen inning contest. Brooks big right hander, worked fine after the frist innng in which the Gushers scored their only three runs. Carl Hill worked for the Gushers and he deserved to win and he would have had it not been for a little bum head work in the eleventh when Geppert hit one thru Brooks, and it went thru McElwee, Geppert went on around, pausing a moment at 3rd and then he was thrown out at the plate, Clements to Autrey.

There was one moment in the game that will cause much lament to Gusher fans for the remainer of the season and which will please the other clubs in a way, and yet they will be sorry to hear of it. Claude Bryan, center fielder extraordinary, when attempting to steal second slid into the bag in such a manner that he broke both bones in his ankle. This touches the best fielding and the best fitting outfield in the Association. Tiner, pitcher for the Gushers played center field during the remained of the game. U. S. Labor Board Publicly Rebukes Pennsylvania R.y.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The Pennsylvania Railroad was today publicly reprimanded by the United States Railroad Labor Board for "refusal to permit a certain class of employes to select their own representatives to negotiate agreements covering wages and working conditions."

The road was rebuked by the board as placing itself in the same position as employes who strike against the board's decisions and the law creating the board.

The Pennsylvania was declared to have "denied to its shopmen the privilege of laboring men to which Congress had declared the men entitled.

The official rebuke, the only penalty the rail board is empowered to inflict, climaxed the attempt of the Pennsylvania to negotiate with its men direct through "company unions." The trainmen's brotherhoods were the only exception to this scheme and the fight has been before the board and in courts at various times in two years.

The railroads ignored an order of the board to hold an election among its shopcrafts so that the men might select representatives to act in wage and other disputes. The board cited the road for contempt. The Pennsylvania took an injunction case to restrain the board from administering the rebuke to the United States Supreme Court which held in favor of the board.

Recently Samuel Rea, president of the road, was peremptorily hailed before the board by Ben W. Hooper, chairman in a similar controversy involving the clerks brotherhood.

The brotherhood charged that the road was arbitrarily forcing employes to negotiate through company unions when they wished the unions to represent them. Rea again defied the board and declared the men voted to negotiate through the company unions.

He challenged the right of the board to interfere.

Today's rebuke branded the road's course as "indefensible from every viewpoint."

To Put Flivvers In the Pound Pen

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 18.—A pounding system for automobiles found in violation of traffic ordinances will soon be inaugurated here, it has been annuoced by Fire and Police Commissioner Claude Wright.

Under the pounding system automobiles found too near a fire plug, improperly parked or in violation of any traffic ordinances will be hauled to the city pound, where they will be held until the owner calls and pays a $2.00 pound fee.

The pounding system will be a great time saver and will also eliminate the possibility of the violator escaping as is sometimes the case under the present ticket system. It was explained by Wright. When the owner calls for his car he can be served personally with a court summons. If he fails to anwer the summons, he can be cited for contempt of court.

State Seeks 48 Acres Adjacent To Powell Field

AUSTIN, June 18.—Suit on behalf of the State against the Sun company, J. K. Hughes Oil company and others for the recovery of certain valuable oil lands in Navarro county was filed here Saturday by the attorney general. The suit was filed for recovery of 48 acres of land situated in the Powell field and in close proximity to the famous Hughes-McKie well of the J. K. Hughes Oil company. Damages amounting to $100,000 also are asked by the State.

Allegations in the State's petition state that on June 1, 1923, the commissioner of the general land office issued J. E. Anderson of Austin a permit to prospect for oil and gas on this land. The suit is designed to protect Anderson and his right to prospect. The petition further asks that the defendants companies be restrained from further interfering with Anderson.

The Sill ambulance was called and hurriedly made the trip with him to the Mexia General Hospital. It was thought that he was dead when picked up, but in order to be sure that every effort might be put forth to save him, he was rushed to the sanitarium where he was pronounced dead. It is understood that the deceased came to Mexia only recently but he had many friends here. He came here from Needham. His father asked the Sill Undertaking Company to ship his body to him in South Texas, near Houston which was done Sunday night.

Circulation Campaign Of The Mexia Daily News Gets Under Way With A Universal Expression Of Approval

Although the power plant has been shut down half of the day, making it very difficult for The Mexia Daily News to be issued at all today, in any form, there seems to be a constant strengthening of power in the circulation campaign being waged throughout this section of Texas by The News

Numbers of letters have been received by the management congratulating the News for its efforts in building a bigger and better city and community.

J. K. Hughes, one of the loyal supporters and friends of The News was the first citizen to take advantage of the greatest bargain offer that has ever been offered by a daily newspaper when he sent in his personal check for twelve new subscribers under the club rate plan.

John I. McElroy of the Higdon-McElroy company also sent a nice letter of encouragement and is planning further co-operation in some plan that he has formed in connection with his 99 cent days.

Jesse McELndon telephoned the manager, W. K. Boyd, who is personally conducting the circulation building campaign, stating that he had quite a few griends whom he hoped to take advantage of the liberal rate for, and to reserve him a number of subscriptions out of the first 2,000.

Subscriptions are coming in on every route out of Mexia and from patrons of routes out of neighboring towns, building up a wholesome list of readers from this section of Texas.

Thousands of extra copies are being sent out and each mail is expected to bring in a larger quota of new subscribers until the close of the campaign the fifteenth of July.

The Salesmanship club, through its officers, has sent word that it is glad to line up with the press and do anything in its power to make this drive a success.

A letter from Mildred, the new oil town on the T. & B. V., expresses the opinion of the writer that The Mexia Daily News has authentic data on the oil situation there, and its superiority in this immediate field is recognized generally.

The Texas manager of the United Press recently stated that The Mexia Daily News publishes more live world news than any small city paper in Texas.

"Father" may be followed daily. Each issue means a smile, as this greatest comic feature known to the newpaper world is daily in these columns.

The athletic section has its appeal.

Efforts are being made to offer a farm page of interest to the growing number of readers on rural routes and conncetions are being made with correspondents in the country communities.

The County Court House news interests everyone.

The big Sunday paper itself is worth the price asked for the daily under the present plan and efforts are constantly being made to improve the service given and raise the standard until none will dispute its present position as the leading daily newspaper of East Central Texas.

Michigan Flyers Land In Santone

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 18—Under the command of Major Carl Spatz, the seven Fokker monoplanes which left Selfridge Field, Mount Clemens, Mich., early Friday morning, arrived at their destination, Kelly Field, San Antonio, at 6 o'clock yesterday.

The flight of the Fokkers, of which there are only nine in the army air service, the other two being retained at Selfridge Field, was without incident, with the exception of one fog encountered shortly after leaving Mount Clemens, according to Major Spatz.

Stops were made enroute at Rantoul, Ill., St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Kas.; Fort Sill, Ok.; and Dallas, Texas.

The monoplanes are all new, having been made in Holland and received in this country last January. They had been only about 100 hours flying before leaving for Kelly Field They are of similar, though much smaller type than the T-2, recently flown in a transcontinental flight by Lieutenantse Kelly and Macready.

Mistook Insects for Smoke; Gave In A Fire Alarm

WACO, Texas, June 18.—A swarm of insects pouring from the tower of the idministration building at Baylor University here at sunset one evening caused a general alarm to be turned in to the fire department.

The swirling mass of insects coming from the tower gave the appearance of smoke and an over cautious pedestrian turned in the alarm.

Traffic jams resulting from the movement of the fire apparatus lasted for several hours and Chief Meers who was caught in a jam was forced to abandon his car and make the call on foot.

John C. Yeldell returned Monday at noon from Dallas, where he has been in a sanitarium.

Indian Wife Of Croker Wins Her Suit In Ireland

By GEORGE MACDONAGH

DUBLIN, June 18.—"Bula don't give up the ship."

Such were the last words of 'Boss' Richard Croker, his Indian bride, who won a complete victory in the courts here when the late Tammany polticians children were denied their sunit to break Croker's will, she declared in an exclusive interview with the United Press.

The boss, Bula said, was encouraging her to fight all law suits designed to deprive her of his entire estate, which his last will left to her.

Mrs. Croker was tremendously pleased by her court victory.

"It was a real Irish victory" the former American Indian girl declared. She pointed out that an Irish flag was flying over Glencairn, the home Croker left here, in celebration of the court triumph over Richard Croker Jr., and other children of the "boss" by his first wife, who tried repeatedly and unsuccessfully to dis cedit Bula and beak the will.

"I feel I have been fully vindicated," Bula said. "The couts of Ireland have done me justice.

"I would like to add that my one regret throughout the proceedings was that my dead husband was not by my side in the hour of victory.

"I might say that I carried on the fight in accordance with his last words and wishes.

"His last words to me were: 'Bula, don't give up the ship. Please see all these lawsuits out in open court.'"

Two months before Croker died, Bula said, she asked him to the presence of witnesses if he would like to see anyone in particular, mentioning the names of his children. He replied that he would not, she declared.

"Thank the people of America and Ireland for their good wishes." she said.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH POISON PLOT TRIED TODAY

NEWARK, N. J. June 18.—Facing charges which represent her as a modern Lucretia Borgia, Mrs. Mary F. Creighton, went on trial here today for the alleged murder of her borther by slow poison.

A pale nervously smiling woman, Mrs. Creighton looked anything but the cold blooded murderess which the State claims her to be.

She is accused of having fed arsenic to Charles Raymond Avery, 18, killing him by inches, to obtain his life insurance. Her husband, John, a mild-mannered man with a dazed air, is charged with the same offense. The prosecution proposes to show that he came under the influence of his wife and was forced to participate in the alleged poison plot. In addition to young Avery, Mrs. Creighton is suspected of having poisoned her mother-in-law, Mrs. Walter J. Creighton. She is under indictment for this. The elder Mrs. Creighton's body was exhumed, and traces of poison found in it, according to the State's experts.

As Mrs. Creighton was summoned to court, nurses at the house of detention were caring for her month-old baby, born since her arrest. Friends are looking after her other child, a daughter.

LIONS TO ROAR WHEN FACE TO FACE WITH SALESMEN

By HECK

The Lions will roar again June 26 and the Salesmanship Club will try to peddle the wild beast their wares when the two ball nines meet in deadly combat at Nowlin park in a game for the benefit of the playground fund. I am giving you fans a tip right now that the coming fracas between the Lions and Salesmanship gang will not be such a one sided affair as the Lion-Rotary game was a spell back—I hated to say that, Eubanks, but it must be did)—and my tip is that it is going to be a regular He-mans ball game and with such hitters as Dock Brown, Tom Phillips, Gene Sinclair, and in fact the whole gob of Lions that shook the universe with their hitting power in the Lion-Rotatin game. Dick Wagner, who seems to be the high mucky muck of the Salesmanship gang, is all het up over the wonderful ball nine he has collected from the wilds of the Trinity bottoms or somewhere and being the general pooh bah of the gang he naturally is about 9-10 swelled up over his gang, but my hunch is that his ball nine is not going to be so darn good as he thinks it is and them Lions will be there with bells on. However, I just want to whisper a word in your ears about both them nines. "None of them have even acknowledged my challenge for a game against my Elks Club nine and just between you and me I think there is an amber streak somewhere along their spines about tangling up with my Elks' nine." But I'll let that matter rest a while and keep hammering away at you to be out there the 26 and see the Lions chew up the Salesmanship bunch. Still, it may go the other way so I am tell you to be out the 26 and see for yourself and I know that it will be worth the money either way it goes.

Orphans of Commerce

ON nearly every merchant's shelves are a few unknown left-overs. They have been there a long time. No one remembers just how long. Dingy, faded and soiled, they seem to be edg- ing away from their more brightly dressed neighbors to a place of seclusion. There is a story behind these shabby little strangers.

A story of how once they were proud and new, dressed in clothes as gaudy and bright as the latest vial of perfume from Paris.

They were sold to the merchant by a sales- man who knew their merits. For a time the merchant remembered their merits and told his customers. But little by little these merits were forgotten. The merchant, with his many items, slowly forgot even their names. New clerks never heard of them.

When some of their more fortunate shelf mates were advertised, merchants began to display these lines more prominently and uncalled for and unsold the unknown. It takes little effort and little time to sell goods which everyone knows about.

The shabby little orphans are gradually disappearing. They are being given away or thrown away to make room. Tomorrow they shoppers selected the goods they became ac- quainted with through printers' ink, leaving will be gone.

We still have lots of good merchandise left but sizes are being broken, the most desirable colors are going and the best materials are being picked very fast. If you are in need of any kind of summer merchandise then it will pay you to come to our store at once and get our prices while the picking is good.
